

Chocolate Retailer Nabs Top Rating from TopConsumerReviews.com

zChocolat, a leading retailer of Chocolate, receives the highest ranking available from TopConsumerReviews.com.

Overland Park, KS (PRWEB) December 09, 2016 -- TopConsumerReviews.com recently gave a best-in-class 5 star rating to zChocolat, a leader among online retailers of Chocolate.

Who doesn't love chocolate? From rich, dark truffles to classic milk chocolate bars, chocolate is one of the most consumed treats in the world. And, chocolate has been a top choice for gift-giving across a wide spectrum of occasions - not just Valentine's Day assortments and Halloween treats, but also corporate awards ceremonies, baby showers, and many more. However, finding a quality chocolate that is worthy of such gift-giving moments can be challenging when limited to shopping at brick-and-mortar retail locations. Most stores carry only a select few brands and products, focusing on the well-known name brands and leaving out the more gourmet, high-end chocolates. To find such quality chocolates, many customers shop online. With just the click of a mouse, they can have the samplers, bars, and other chocolate items sent directly to their doorstep or to their gift recipients.

"If you're looking for a chocolate that is sure to impress, zChocolat should be at the top of your list," according to Brian Dolezal of TopConsumerReviews.com, LLC. "French master chef Pascal Caffet has created a wide variety of sweet masterpieces that take chocolate to the next level, from Venezuelan dark chocolate ganache to pistachio-almond marzipan and much, much more. Even the boxes used to package the chocolate are stunning - with options for engraving or even personalization with a photo or logo. zChocolat also strives for the best in customer satisfaction: if your chocolates arrive in anything less than perfect condition, they will replace them immediately. With decadent flavors and gorgeous presentation, zChocolat merits our highest rating among retailers of Chocolate in 2016."
